INTRO:

Last night, I had a love-ly dream.
I saw a big pa-rade, with ti-cker-tape ga-lore,
and men were mar-ching there,
the like I'd ne-ver seen be-fore:

Verses:

Oh, the ban-kers and the di-plo-mats
are go-ing in the ar-my:
Oh, ha-ppy day, I'd spend my pay to see them on pa-rade, Their paun-ches at a-tten-tion and their stri-ped pants at ease - They've go-tten pa-tri-o-tic and they're go-ing o-ver-seas.
We'll have to do the best we can and brave-ly ca-rry on,
So we'll just keep the young folks here to ma-nage while they're gone.

Chorus:

Oh! Oh! We hate to see them go!
The gen-tle-men of di-stinc-tion in the ar-my!

The ban-kers and the di-plo-mats
are go-ing in the ar-my
It seems a shame to keep them from the wars they love to plan, We're all of us con-ten-ted that they'll fight a dan-dy war - They don't need pro-pa-gan-da they know what they're figh-ting for They'll march a-way with dig-ni-ty and in the best of form,
And we'll just keep the young folk here
to keep each o-ther warm.

The ban-kers and the di-plo-mats
are go-ing in the ar-my:
We'll have to make things ea-sy,
'cause it's all so new and strange, We'll give them si-ver sho-vels when they have to dig a hole,
And they can sing in har-mo-ny
while an-swe-ring the roll, They'll eat their old K-ra-tions from a hand-em-broi-dered box,
And when they die, we'll bring 'em home and bu-ry them in Fort Knox!

THE MONEY'S GONNA FLOW
w: Charlie King (www.CharlieKing.org)

Last night, I had a lovely dream
I saw lo-bby-ists with pro-test signs, tru-dging though D-C, While President Cindy Sheehan
watched Jon Stewart on TV

And she wore a yellow ribbon saying "I support our teachers" I won't betray the trust of those who fight to help kids learn It gives great aid and comfort to our brazen enemies
When students lack the proper tools to learn the ABC's
(not to mention the Do Re Mi's)
I'm very tough on ignorance, an education hawk School spending is inadequate, it's time to bite the chalk

CHORUS

O-o-o-oh the money's gonna flow
Are you telling me that you don't support our teachers?!

On her limo was a bumper sticker:
"I support our nurses."
These gallant men & women risk their lives to fight disease It's no surprise they need supplies to keep us hail and fit
The war on germs is endless and its needs are infinite
The current foreign policy is squandering our wealth What good is global empire if you haven't got your health?

CHORUS 2 :

O-o-o-oh the money's gonna flow
Are you telling me that you don't support our nurses?!

She flaunts a flag lapel pin stating "I support our Veterans" Including those in hospitals, in jail or on the street.
They deserve to live the lifestyle, that they've been fighting for If they'd had better schools and jobs they wouldn't 'o gone to war.
There's some that reaps the profits and there's some that pays the debts Just for a switch, let's tax the rich and spend it on the Vets

CHORUS 3 :

O-o-o-oh the money's gonna flow
Are you telling me that you don't support our Veterans?!

REPRISE:

Are you telling me that you don't support our nurses?!
Support our teachers?!
Support the U.S.A. ?!
