

Deportados - rough translation

I'm going to tell you, senores (x2)
Everything I suffered
When I left my homeland (x2)
To come to this country

It was ten at night (x 2)
A train began to whistle
Hear what I say, my mother
It came, that ungrateful train
That took my son away

We arrived at last at Juarez (x2)
Where I had to worry
What goes in, what comes out
How much money it takes
To enter this nation

Senores, I have money (x2)
So as to emigrate
Your money is worth nothing (x2)
We need to keep you out

Today there is a great dust cloud (x2)
And without thought
Women, children, and old-timers
They are taken to the border
And thrown out of this country

Goodbye, beloved countrymen (x2)
They are going to deport us
But we are not bandits (x2)
We come here to work hard

I'll wait for you there in my country (x2)
The revolution is over
Let's go, dear friends
We will be warmly welcomed
In our beautiful nation
