A:
We sew the clothes.
The ones that you buy.

SA:
We can't afford them for our selves,
the price is too high.

A:
Our families need food.
We don't need name brands.

SA:
We'd just like a fair share_ of the money that's made_
off of our work-ing hands.

ALL (Chorus):

We need the right to organize,

SAT:
No Sweat!

ALL:
No_ forced o_ver time.

SAT:
No Sweat!

ALL:
Clean drink_ king water_ ,

SAT:
No Sweat!

ALL:
Clean air to breathe_
No bo_sses screaming_.

SAT:
No_ forced preg-nan-cy tests,

ALL:
the right to speak and be heard.
We are are wor-kers_
spread-ing the word_
No Sweat!

A:
There's lint in the air_
Our lungs are on fire_;

SA:
We work behind tall ce-ment walls_
topped with barbed wire_.

A:
We don't have a voice_
So we can't com-plain_.

SA:
They just kick us out_
when ev-er we shout_
or cry out in pain.

ALL (Chorus):

We need the right to or-gan-ize...

A (special verse):

They call us sweat-shop wor-kers.
We live from hand to mouth.

SAT:
We took the jobs you lost up North
when the com-pa-nies moved South.
We don't have a Union_
We bare-ly get by_
We need your support_
We need you to join in_
when you hear our cry_.

ALL (Chorus):

We need the right to or-gan-ize...

A:
Our wages are low;
our hours are long.

SA:
They dock our pay for any thing,
they say is wrong.

A:
They hire us girls;
they think we'll obey.

SA:
But we feel the power
when we work together_
and when we say:

ALL:
No Sweat!

ALL (Chorus):

We need the right to or-gan-ize...

ALL (Final):

We are are wor-kers...
spread-ing the word_
No Sweat!
