(Chorus)
 Oh dear, what can I do?
 I lost my job
 The-rent's-over-due
 Tell me, oh what can I do?

(Verse)
 My job is no more
 And so it's gone with the wind
 And though it's not skill that I lack
 MyJob won't come back

(Chorus)
 Oh, dear what can I do?
 They laid me off work
 Damned bills have come due
 Tell me oh, what can I do?

(Verse)
 I try to find work
 To feed my hungry kid's mouth
 The bank is foreclosing my house
 And jobs have gone south

(Bridge)
 Oh, how long will it take?
 'Till workers arise-and-unite,
 Rush-the-day!
 Oh, that we take back
 Control of our fate,
 Turn back the attack
 Oh, what shall we do?

(Verse)
 Tell me, Why must we toil?
 To make the bourge-oi-sie rich?
 They own it lock-stock-and-barrel
 And don't work a stitch!
 blah1 blah2 blah3 blah4 blah5
 Tell me, oh, what shall we do?

(Chorus)
 Oh, dear, what shall we do
 To end this de-mo_-cra-cy fo-or-the-few?
 Tell me oh, what shall we do?

(Verse)
 The com_-pa-ny pays
 The least-wage-they-possibly-can
 Then they charge us
 The most that they can
 We've-empty-hands

(Chorus)
 Oh, dear what shall we do?
 It's fortunes for them,
 Unemployment for you
 Our country is ruled by the few

(Verse)
 Worked all my life
 And so did-my-loving-wife
 For all this what have we to show?
 But the landlord we owe

(Bridge + Final Chorus)
 Oh, how long will it take?
 'Till workers arise-and-unite,
 Rush the day!
 Dear, what shall we do?
 But struggle like hell
 For-justice-long-due
 I say yes, that's what we'll do,
 Say yes, that's what we'll do!
